I'll be performing a data backup as a production backup for the 1st time. Not certain what kind of host server I should use. It'll be a small scale shop, run by myself. It'll have all my usual applications. Nothing too demanding. I need a hosting solution with very little support overhead. I'm not that good at figuring out what to install on a server, so I'd like a solution that comes with an OS and pre-installed apps, but allow me to change things as needed. Basically, all I need is a few python scripts or a web app. I'll be doing my data backup over SSH, so what I need is a python (or other) server 6d1f23a050
