The reason for this is that the software is produced by Adobe, and Adobe only releases the software to customers who have paid for it. If you think you have obtained a copy of the software without being charged, you must have obtained the software through a file sharing program because any legitimate software vendor will never offer the software for free. You must take this information for what it is worth and understand that the user of the software is being charged. If that isn't enough, you also need to understand that you are not allowed to share the activation code because it is against the rules that Adobe has set for its customers.
